Competition in self defence – Rules:

- 1) Self-defence competition is performed in a manner in which competing Teams execute free presentation of self-defence continuously for a period from 30 seconds to maximally 2 minutes.
- 2) Self-defence is judged by 5 referees who grade the performance on the 0 to 10 scale by marking grade at one decimal point (for example 7.6).
- 3) Grading is performed by appraising technical excellence, general impression and efficiency of the performed self-defence.
- 4) While performing self-defence techniques dummy weapons can be used only.
- 5) Self-defence techniques are to be performed in real-time and real-speed manner, (i.e. realistically), with no pausing during the entire performance.
